Having your message printed on a Nebo Trivia Card is the easiest way to share your message with the rest of the world. Nebo Games has created over seven game editions for a variety of individuals (from students to senior citizens). Interest categories include pet lovers, sports enthusiasts, romantically involved couples, and more. Each trivia game edition includes trivia cards with questions and a set of responses.

For a limited only, you can have your personalized message printed on a Nebo Trivia Card. Each edition is estimated to reach 1.5 million players.

The messages can be used for advertising, sayings, memorials, dedications, and more. Want to give a special gift? Purchase spots in an edition to gift your friends on special occasions, such as birthdays, marriages, or anniversaries. If you purchase a personalized message for an entire game, we will name the entire edition after you or your favorite charity (example: "Clint Eastwood Senior Citizens Edition"). Further, donations will be made to a charity of your choice.

This is how your personalized message will appear on a Nebo Trivia Card.

Want to educate your following?

You can create your own questions and a set of qualified responses. This is a unique opportunity to educate your audience about a topic close to your heart.
